

CID APPLICANT BACKGROUND QUESTIONNAIRE

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT: The Privacy Act of 1974 requires that each individual asked to provide information be advised of the following:

- a. AUTHORITY: DoD Directive 5105.42 and 5 USC 301.
- b. PURPOSE: This information is being requested to obtain information that will assist CID officials in determining your suitability for a position in CID.
- c. ROUTINE USES: This information will be provided to and maintained by CID. It may be furnished to accredited DOD agencies, accredited federal agencies, and law enforcement agencies for their official use.
- d. VOLUNTARY DISCLOSURE: The disclosure of personal information to CID is voluntary. However, if you do not desire to supply information, CID may be unable to conduct a complete investigation and adjudicating officials may be unable to determine your suitability for a position with CID.

INSTRUCTIONS: Please be entirely honest in answering this questionnaire. The fact that you might have had problems in your background, such as arrests, use of drugs, excessive drinking, mental problems, being fired from positions, or that there may have been accusations against your honesty or moral behavior, does not necessarily mean that your application for CID duty will be disapproved. The authorities who make decisions based on information in your application look at the “whole person.” They weigh unfavorable information against favorable information and the individual’s truthfulness. However, if you fail to accurately disclose relevant information about your background or past behavior, and we subsequently uncover this information, your lack of truthfulness and failure to be candid or straightforward, will be an additional factor considered by the decision-making authorities. This questionnaire is only part of the broader inquiry that we will conduct as you successfully complete the various phases of CID recruitment. In order to enter into CID, you must undergo an extensive background investigation. Such an investigation will include checks of criminal agencies, reviews of education and employment records, and interviews of people who know you both at work and where you live. It will also explore, in-depth, the answers you provide on this questionnaire.
