FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

$100,000 Reward

U.S. Army Special Agents Seek Information on 2001 Homicide of 19-Year-Old, Pregnant Soldier in Hanau, Germany

FORT BELVOIR, Va., Nov 20, 2008 – Special Agents from the U.S. Army Criminal Investigation Command, commonly known as CID, are offering a $100,000 reward to anyone with information leading to the apprehension and conviction of the person(s) responsible for the 2001 death of U.S. Army Soldier Pfc. Amanda Gonzales in Hanau, Germany.

Gonzales, 19, was four months pregnant at the time of her death. Her body was found Nov. 5, 2001 in her third-floor barracks room on Fliegerhorst Kasern near Hanau, Germany after she did not report for work. Gonzales, on her first assignment in the Army, was assigned to Headquarters Supply Company of the 127th Aviation Support Battalion as a cook at the time of her death. She had been in Germany only eight months.

The death was ruled a homicide by asphyxiation.

“Increasing the reward to $100,000 is a testament to the determination we have in solving this case and bringing the person or persons responsible to justice,” said CID spokesman Chris Grey. “We are confident that someone out there knows something about the untimely death of this Soldier and her unborn child, and we are not giving up. We strongly encourage anyone with information to contact us immediately.”

Persons with any information regarding this case should contact CID at 703-806-0277 or email CID at crimetips@conus.army.mil. Person’s wishing to remain anonymous will be honored and information will be held in the strictest confidence allowable under the law.
