

MAJOR GENERAL (RET) PETER T. BERRY

Year of Induction: 2005

Served: 1976 - 1995

Commanding General, USACIDC (1990 – 1995)

Commander, Third Region, Fort Gillem, GA (1984 – 1986)

Director of Operations, USACIDC (1980 – 1984)

Commander, Stuttgart District, Second Region, Germany (1976 – 1977)

MAJOR ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Selected as the fifth Commander of the Army's premier investigative force.

Enforced high standards of investigative timeliness, thoroughness, and reporting and set the example of personal conduct, professionalism, and dedication for every member of the Command to emulate.

Built the "go to war" Command philosophy where agents were first and foremost Soldiers; the effects of which are still seen today in CID's support of the Army's deployed missions.
