

MAJOR GENERAL (RET) DONALD J. RYDER

Year of Induction: 2011

Served: 1972 – 2006

Provost Marshal General of the Army (2003 – 2006)

Commanding General, U.S. Army Criminal Investigation Command, Fort Belvoir, VA (2001 – 2006)

Commandant, USAMPS, Fort McClellan, AL and Fort Leonard Wood, MO (1999 – 2001)

MAJOR ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Led CID support to the Global War on Terrorism (Afghanistan and Iraq).

Formed the DoD Criminal Investigation Task Force to investigate detained terrorists at GTMO.

Led the Army's investigation into criminality discovered in Abu Ghraib.

Greatly expanded the capabilities of USACIL, the Protective Services Battalion, and CID Special Agent forces worldwide.

Reestablished the Office of the Provost Marshal General to enhance the voice of the Military Police Corps to the Army Staff.