

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION DIVISION

$15,000 REWARD

FOR INFORMATION

The Department of the Army Criminal Investigation Division is offering a reward up to $15,000 for credible information leading to the recovery of Sgt. Jeff A. Coonradt, and the successful arrest and conviction of those responsible for his death. Sgt. Coonradt, 27 years old, was last seen in Marina, CA, on December 20, 1987, while riding as a passenger in the car of a friend and fellow unit member. According to the friend, Sgt. Coonradt jumped from the vehicle while it was stopped at an intersection. Sgt. Coonradt has not been seen since and is presumed dead. Foul play is suspected in his disappearance and subsequent death.

Individuals with credible information concerning this incident are encouraged to contact the Army CID Cold Case Unit at (520) 706-8685, usarmy.belvoir.hqda-usacid.mbx.cold-case-unit@army.mil or submit an anonymous tip online at www.p3tips/army.cid.

The payout of cash rewards to military and federal employees for information leading to conviction is contingent upon their exceptional actions regarding the information provided. Army CID reserves the discretion to award the full or a lesser amount based on the quality of information, multiple claimants, or other set criteria. If you do not wish to be identified, you will be briefed on available options to remain anonymous.
