

United States Army Criminal Investigation Command

Media contact:
571-305-4041

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Army CID Offers Reward in Soldier's Murder

QUANTICO, VA, January 14, 2021 – The U.S Army Criminal Investigation Command is seeking the public's help and offering a reward of up to $25,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person(s) responsible for the murder of Joint Base San Antonio Soldier, SSgt. Jessica Ann Mitchell.

Staff Sergeant Mitchell was last seen at the 4th Quarter Sports Bar located at 8779 Wurzbach, San Antonio, Texas, at approximately 2 a.m., Jan 1, 2021, and was shot to death in her vehicle on Interstate 10 near Vance Jackson Road, San Antonio, Texas, at about 2:15 a.m., Jan 1, 2021. SSgt Mitchell was driving eastbound in her 2019 White Dodge Charger.

"We are actively investigating the circumstances surrounding SSgt. Mitchell's senseless murder and are asking the public to come forward if they have any information on this case, regardless of how insignificant it may seem," said Chris Grey, spokesman for Army CID.

Persons can contact the Fort Sam Houston CID Office at 210-221-1628 or contact their local police department. Persons can also anonymously submit information at <https://www.cid.army.mil/report-a-crime.html>. People wishing to remain anonymous will be honored to the degree allowable under the law and the information will be held in the strictest confidence allowable. The payout of cash rewards to military and federal employees for information is contingent upon the accuracy and value of information provided, and the action taken based upon that information.

30

For more information about CID or to report a crime, visit www.cid.army.mil.