

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION DIVISION

$15,000 REWARD

FOR INFORMATION

The Department of the Army Criminal Investigation Division is offering a reward up to $15,000 for credible information leading to the arrest and conviction for those responsible for the disappearance or death of Tina, Dale Jr., and Stephon Grogan.

In the early morning hours of November 28, 1992, multiple residents of the apartment building where the Grogan's resided in Wurzburg, Germany, were awakened by the sounds of a domestic incident within the Grogan apartment. Several residents reported they heard screams and one or more children screaming within the apartment, "don't hurt my mommy" or "don't hit my mommy." Tina, Dale Jr (aged 6) and Stephon (aged 4) have not been seen since, nor have their remains been located.

Individuals with credible information concerning this incident are encouraged to contact the Army CID Cold Case Unit at (520) 706-8685, usarmy.belvoir.hqda-usacid.mbx.cold-case-unit@army.mil or submit an anonymous tip online at www.cid.army.mil/tips.

The payout of cash rewards to military and federal employees for information leading to conviction is contingent upon their exceptional actions regarding the information provided. Army CID reserves the discretion to award the full or a lesser amount based on the quality of information, multiple claimants, or other set criteria. If you do not wish to be identified, you will be briefed on available options to remain anonymous.
