

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY

CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION DIVISION

WANTED / BOLO

The Department of the Army Criminal Investigation Division is requesting assistance in locating Spc. Jonathan Kang Lee, a deserter of the U.S. Army.

Not the actual vehicle, example only

On Jan. 19, 2024, Lee was convicted and sentenced, in-absentia, to 64 years of confinement for felony offenses during a military court martial held on Joint Base Lewis-McChord, WA. Lee, a Soldier assigned to Joint Base Lewis-McChord was last seen Jan. 14, 2023, on Joint Base Lewis-McChord driving a white 2011 Honda Pilot.

Any person having credible information regarding this person should contact the Army CID Western Field Office at (253) 967-3151 or by email at: usarmy.western-field-office.cid@army.mil.

Anonymous tips can be submitted through the Army CID Submit-a-Tip on-line form at <https://www.p3tips.com/tipform.aspx?ID=325>. Persons wishing to remain anonymous will be honored to the degree allowable under the law and the information will be held in the strictest confidence allowable.

