

UNITED STATES ARMY CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION COMMAND

BECOME A CID SPECIAL AGENT

The U.S. Army Criminal Investigation Command is seeking qualified applicants to become highly-trained criminal investigators.

CID supports the Army in peacetime and during war. CID Special Agents receive the latest in law enforcement investigative training and perform professional criminal investigations worldwide, using state-of-the-art technology.

CID MISSION

- » Investigate all felony crimes in which the Army has an interest including general crime (against persons or property), economic crime and counter-drug operations
- » Work closely with other federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism and protect the force
- » Provide worldwide criminal investigative support to all U.S. Army elements
- » Conduct sensitive or special interest investigations as required or directed
- » Conduct protective service operations for Department of Defense, Joint Chiefs of Staff and Department of the Army officials
- » Provide forensic laboratory support for all Department of Defense investigative agencies

WWW.CID.ARMY.MIL

CID SPECIAL AGENT DIRECT ACCESSION RECRUITING PROGRAM

If you are a college graduate interested in joining the Army and having a career as a federal law enforcement officer, you may be interested in the Criminal Investigation Command Direct Accessions Program. New recruits must complete Military Police One Station Unit Training (MOS 31B) and the CID Special Agent Course.

WHAT ARE SOME OF THE QUALIFICATIONS FOR BECOMING A CID SPECIAL AGENT?

- » Must be a U.S. citizen
- » Minimum age of 21
- » Bachelors or higher level degree in:
 - » Criminal Justice
 - » Forensic Science
 - » Computer Science
 - » Computer Forensics
 - » Digital Forensics
 - » Legal Studies
 - » Accounting
 - » Finance
 - » Psychology
 - » Biology
- » GPA of 3.0 or higher
- » Minimum Skilled Technical score of 107 and minimum General Technical score of 110
- » Speak and write clearly to express questions, conduct interviews, and present information when testifying
- » Ability to deploy worldwide, have no physical limitations and normal color vision
- » No history of mental or emotional disorders
- » Valid driver's license and favorable driving record
- » Favorable credit history
- » No felony or court martial convictions
- » No record of Lost Time or having received less than an honorable discharge
- » No pattern of behavior or actions that is reasonably indicative of a contemptuous attitude toward the law or other duly constituted authority
- » Suitable character, integrity, reputation, sobriety, discretion, and stability as established by a Single Scope Background Investigation and other information developed during application processing

Prospective applicants must contact their local U.S. Army recruiter to begin the application process. To locate a recruiter, visit www.goarmy.com. For more information about Army CID, visit www.cid.army.mil.